

Lawley Bank Walk

DURATION: 30 MINUTES AT A STEADY PACE.

TERRAIN: MAJORITY FLAT.

PATH TYPES: FOOTPATHS (TARMAC). PUBLIC RIGHT OF WAY (PART GRAVEL/REMAINDER CROSSING FIELD WHICH CAN BE OCCASIONALLY MUDDY).

DISABILITY ACCESS: MEMORIAL CAN BE SEEN FROM FOOTPATH MILNERS LANE. ACCESS LIMITED FOR WHEELCHAIRS.

ADVISE CAUTION DUE TO TRAFFIC. ACCESS BEYOND MARKER SIGN (43) NOT RECOMMENDED.

SUITABLE: CAUTION FOR PUSHCHAIRS/NO FOOTPATH ON STATION ROAD FOR 100 YARDS APX BETWEEN MARKER SIGNS (46-48) CYCLISTS RECOMMEND USE STATION ROAD WITH CAUTION FOR ONCOMING TRAFFIC.

FOOD/DRINK STOP: NONE

28 MEMORIAL

- At the crossroads of Milners Lane and Station Road, look to your left of marker sign 43 down Milners Lane, was the possible site of the King's Head Public House.
- The triangular shaped open space to the right of Station Road can be seen on maps dating as far back as 1804.

Above - The memorial plaque from the Thunderbolt crash

29 LAWLEY BANK SCHOOL

- If you glance down Station Road - look towards the left and you'll see a "wall" made from stones and spoil at the top of Ladygrove. Next to this was the site of Lawley Bank School.

Above - Lawley Bank School on Station Road

30 LAWLEY BANK FARM & AVONDALE

- Follow the footpath along Milners Lane passing Shepherds Fold until you reach the Wrekin View.
- Cross over the road at marker sign 44 by the bus stop look down onto Princess End and the bungalows.

31 BARRACK HOUSE

- Follow the path down into Princes End adjacent the bungalows.
- Continue along the footpath until you see marker sign 45 indicating a public right of way.
- Just up the lane to your right was the Jam Factory.
- Take the right of way, passing through a play area.
- Go down the wooden sleeper steps and cross the open space to the far right corner where you'll find a kissing gate marker sign 46 onto Station Road.

LAWLEY BANK FARM & AVONDALE--CONT'D..

Lawley Bank Farm consisted of a farmhouse and several outbuildings, primary production was arable crops and dairy.

Previous owners included Thomas and James Jones (Bagshaws Directory 1851) and later the Ashley Brothers (Kellys Directory 1929)

Above - Avondale and Princes End from Lawley Common

BARRACK HOUSE.....CONTINUED.....

- Proceed carefully down Station Road until you see marker sign 47.
- Continue carefully down Station Road until you reach the junction with Martingale Way

If you wish to return to Lawley Square, go right along Martingale Way back to West Centre Way. Use the pedestrian crossing to Gresham Drive to access the supermarket car park.

Above - The Barrack House in Station Road

For all the History Trail Routes

LAWLEY AND OVERDALE
PARISH COUNCIL

Lawley Partnership Board

Telford & Wrekin
Cooperation Council

Protect, care and invest
to create a better tomorrow

Bournville

TEL FORD & WREKIN
INTERFAITH COUNCIL

LAWLEY AND OVERDALE
History Council

GREEN SPACES are GO!

